

Free beading pattern for necklace Honey Heart

Looking for a sweet and simple beading project? Today I'm sharing a free beading pattern for the Honey Heart necklace – a delicate design that combines soft shapes with a warm, romantic feel.

This pattern is beginner-friendly, relaxing to make, and perfect for gifts or everyday wear. You can easily customize the colors to match your style – from soft pastels to bold contrasts.

Enjoy the process, bead at your own pace, and create your own little Honey Heart ☺

FREE PATTERN
beadsmagic.com

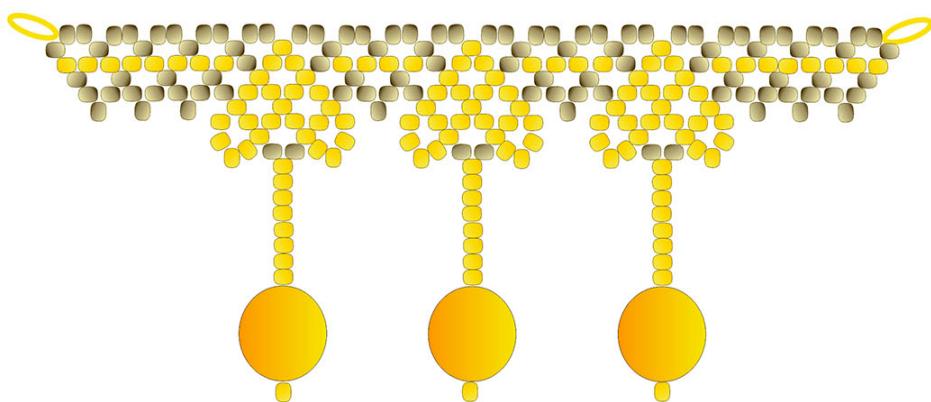

Materials:

- Seed beads 11/0 bronze and gold (gold silver lined)
- Olive shaped beads 6-8 mm
- beading thread soft, like Toho One G, Miyuki, neylon thread etc.
- clasp

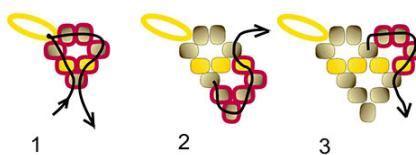

U can download this pattern in pdf format by clicking the pdf button in the end of this post.

Click on the diagram to enlarge it.

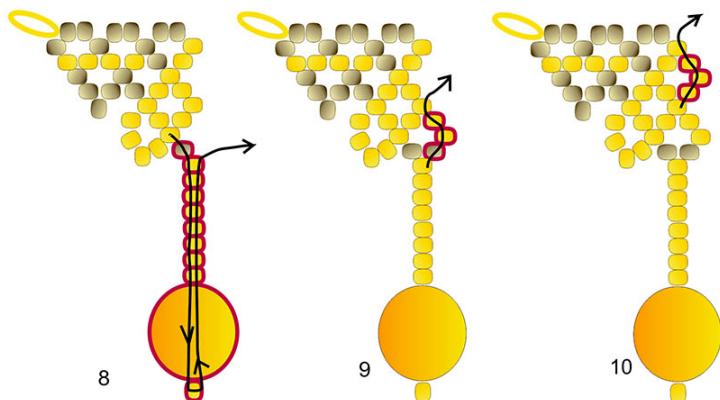

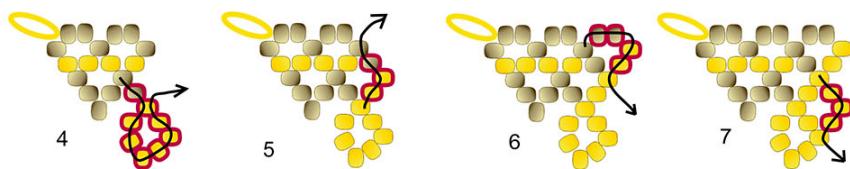

The necklace length in the photo is about 45 cm.

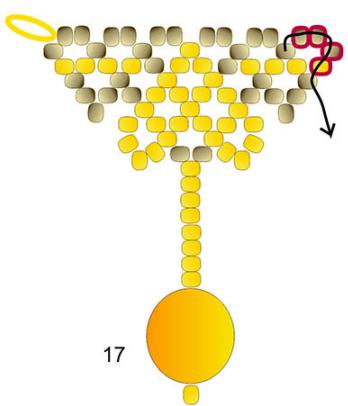

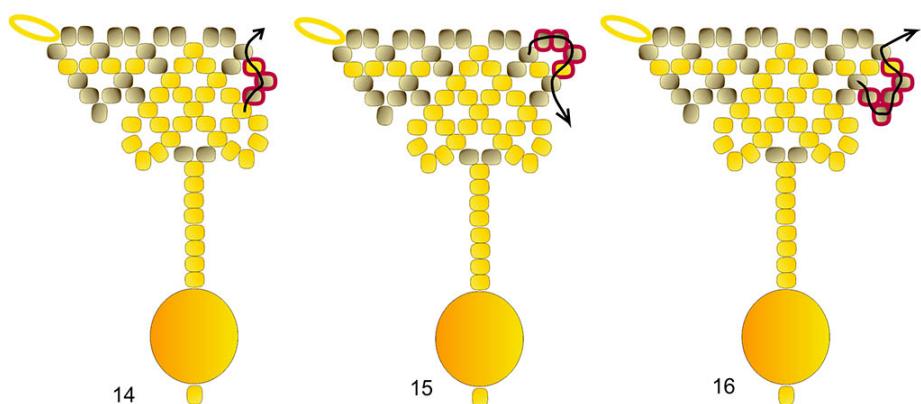

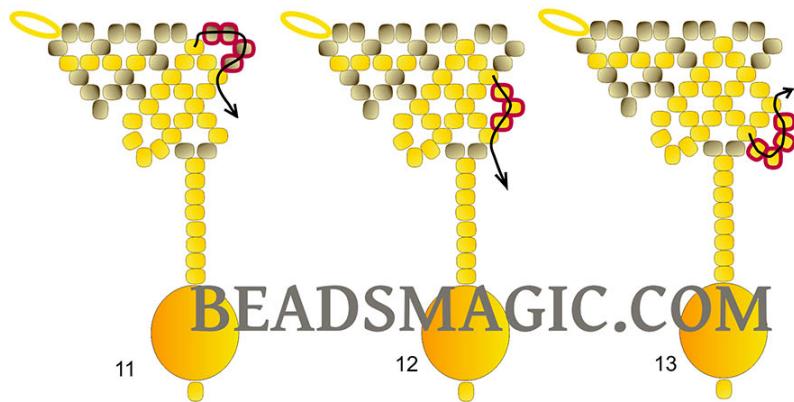

BEADSMAGIC.COM

Repeat steps 2-3 until the length reaches about 10-11 cm. Then make steps 4-17.

Repeat steps 4–17 a total of 8 times.
After this, repeat steps 2–3 until the end of the necklace (about 10–11 cm).

Connect the clasp in the end.

BEADSMAGIC.COM

NOTE: We don't mind if you sell the projects that you make with our patterns, but please mention that you got the pattern from beadsmagic.com.

Dont forget to share your beaded jewelry in our facebook group
– facebook.com/groups/beadsmagicpatterns