

Talanted master and beautiful work

Who doesn't know these amazing patterns from Claudia with this girl as a signature?

She is a real master and a very talented woman and it's even more important that she is ready to share her beautiful patterns with other people who is also addicted to beads.

This is her blog – <http://peetjes.canalblog.com>. There are a lot of nice patterns and beautiful beaded jewellery. I would like to show here just several of her works.
